Pastors Column:

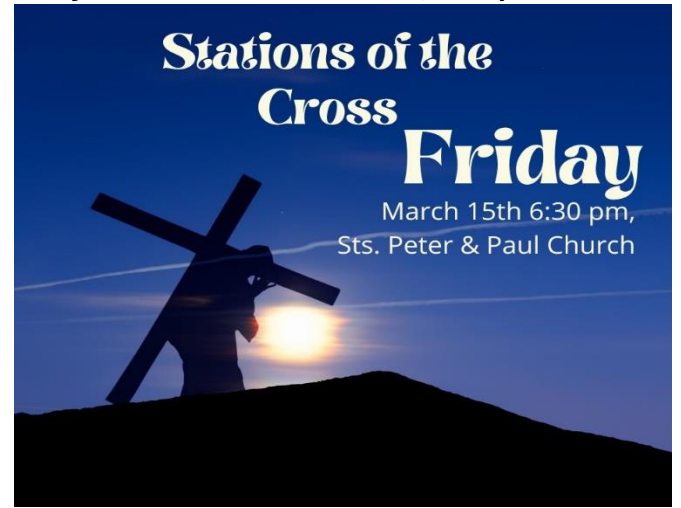

I apologize for not announcing the Consortium Day of Adoration on March 16. We've had the sign-ups out for a few weeks, and we need two people in each hour. However, since we have a Saturday this year, I am asking all of you, unless you are occupied all of those hours, to drop in for some time of prayer when you can, even if you are not signed up. The sign-up is only to guarantee the Lord is not unattended, but the adoration is for everyone.

Holy Thursday is a second opportunity for adoration. The Triduum is the heart of our faith, and those hours after the Holy Thursday Mass are our opportunity to answer the Lord's invitation to 'wait an hour' with him in his agony. We will also have a sign-up (after March 16) to guarantee He isn't alone, but all are welcome.

Can you help your parish? We need collection counters at HT & SPP. If you can volunteer, please contact the Parish office at 740-384-2359 or email: rhendricks@jacksonvintoncatholic.org
